

Classic Winds Music presents.....

Saxophone Performance Workshop

June 24-28, 2019

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

with Saxophonists Robert Haley, Ravan Durr, Emma Haley and Martin Wilkes

Come join the fun at our Annual Saxophone Workshop for advanced middle and high school saxophonists.

The 2019 Saxophone Performance Workshop will provide you with a UNIQUE opportunity to play, study and perform with other really interested saxophonists!

Well-known, professional music instructors and performers will work with you in both LARGE SAXOPHONE ORCHESTRA (SOPRANO, ALTO, TENOR, BARITONE AND BASS SAXOPHONES) and small ensemble settings. You will have the opportunity to perform for comments from the instructors in daily masterclasses. Special guest artists will perform throughout the week, and we'll conclude with a special concert featuring our Saxophone Orchestra and select ensembles.

This will be a week of intensive study of saxophone performance, literature, acoustics, vibrato, overtones, technique, practice, equipment, reed preparation, history, college preparation, district and all-state preparation, jazz styles, beginning improvisation, and everything else related to the saxophone. Participants are asked to prepare at least one solo for optional performance in a masterclass. Past attendees of our workshops have regularly placed high in District and All-State bands, attended the Governor's Honors Program, earned college scholarships in music, majored in music and have become successful music teachers and performing musicians. The thing that unites us all is the love of making great music of all styles with the saxophone.

Eligibility:

If you are in high school or will be entering grades 7 or 8 (with instructor approval) this fall, we want you to join us! Complete the application, include your parent or guardian's signature, and return your application to us by May 30th. No refunds will be made after June 1st.
